OLD BUSINESS

Minutes from the April Board Meeting: Ken Van Tuyl made a MOTION to accept the April 20, 2023 minutes; Otto Boneta SECONDED; MOTION passed.

NEW BUSINESS

- Ken opened by confirming those Board members present were willing to serve again in 2024.
- Monte Poague requested assistance in finding a replacement for his position on Fire Adaptive Bailey (FAB).
- Chip Scudder discussed the deplorable conditions of the chip-sealed roads throughout Woodside.
- Ken informed the Board that the Equestrian Center exterior had been resealed.
- Bob Banks read a statement received from the Colorado Water Commissioner for our District, Mr. Tim Buckley, that the water augmentation plan for our Water Users Association does not allow for "additional structures" or "Guest Houses". If an owner wants to supply water to a "Guest House" or other structure that individual would have to obtain additional augmentation of haul water.
- Ken further added that the October 21st meeting will have attendees from Highline on a broadband update and updates and a review from Elk Creek Fire Chief Jacob Ware.
